You Are God's Beadwork

Presenter: Luella Wagner

This 3-day retreat will begin with our connection to creation and how each individual is part of God's beadwork. Special emphasis will be given to the individual role that each one plays in the enfoldment of creation. What is your mission? What is your soul calling? How does your life fit into God's big picture? These are some of the questions that we will ponder and contemplate.

In addition to the presentations and discussions, a beadwork class will be offered where participants will choose colors, themes and patterns to create a beadwork piece of their own and come to a better understanding of the work, patience, and effort that goes into making a beautiful piece. Beadwork also provides a unique opportunity to meditate and calm the mind.

Participants will experience various rituals of Native American tradition including the Medicine Wheel, its symbolism, and its connection to nature and the creator. Sunday morning we will rise at dawn and greet the sun with an authentic Native American ceremony. A Native American Mass will also be celebrated. Tap into the power of nature and our roles as co creators in the universe!

$250 per person single occupancy | $200 per person double occupancy
$125 per person/ commuter. $50 non-refundable deposit due by November 10.
